They will be supervised in small groups and will receive individual feedback. They will learn practical skills immediately applicable on-the-job in relating with their students, children and their colleagues. At the end of this workshop, participants will be awarded a Certificate of Advanced Intensive Training from the William Glasser International.

The Advanced Intensive Training provides opportunity to study Choice Theory, Reality Therapy & Lead Management in much greater depth. Participants will increase knowledge of the inter-relationship of the various components of the helping process. This will form part of the process whereby the "William Glasser International" recognizes a person qualified to practice Choice Theory & Reality Therapy.

Instructor(s)

Garry Garnaut

Garry has a B.Ed. and a Masters in Counselling. He is an Advanced Instructor for the William Glasser Institute.

Garry is married to Christine and they have four grown up children, two are married and they have 4 grandchildren. Christine continues to work in her career as a university researcher.

Garry's professional career has involved periods as a high school teacher, classroom consultant, counsellor, support services manager, school leader, and working in the private sector as a rehabilitation counsellor and as a group educator in communication and assertion skills. He ran his own private counselling and training practice for nearly 20 years. He has been teaching Bill Glasser's ideas in Choice Theory, Reality Therapy and Lead Management for nearly 30 years.

Garry retired from education in August 2012. In 2015, he retired from counselling and maintains a commitment to teaching Choice Theory, Reality Therapy and Lead Management as a Senior Instructor locally and overseas. He continues to do Life Coaching with individuals using Choice Theory.

Garry has learnt that being retired is a career in itself and he spends his time enjoying his marriage to Chris and family life, babysitting his grandchildren, house renovating, fishing, sailing and generally enjoying the benefits of retirement after a 40 year working career.
